

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS,
EXECUTIVE BUREAU.

MANILA, January 23, 1913.

EXECUTIVE ORDER }
No. 8. }

In view of the confusion existing in the boundaries of the reservation first temporarily made by Act of the Commission Numbered Six hundred and thirty-six in the present city of Baguio, subprovince of Benguet, Mountain Province, and subsequently enlarged and changed into the Baguio town-site reservation, and in view of existing conflicts between the boundaries of the said town-site reservation and those of the military reservation commonly known as Camp John Hay, and in view of the desirability of removing all existing obstacles to a definite determination of the boundaries of the said reservation and the town site of Baguio, Executive Order Numbered Thirty-seven, dated the twenty-third day of September, nineteen hundred and seven, of the Governor-General of the Philippine Islands is hereby revoked.

W. CAMERON FORBES,
Governor-General.
